

I'm so glad to see that it means so much to McCarthyists such as yourselves that we servicemen put our lives on the line to defend the Constitution of the United States of America. The First Amendment grants us ALL the right of free speech. We also have the freedom to choose. If people don't like listening to Howard Stern, then they ought to change the channel or turn the radio off. Instead of policing the airwaves, you should take a look at the parents complaining and asking them why in the hell they're allowing their children to listen to "objectionable" radio in the first place. Fine the parents for being morons, but leave those who want to practice free speech alone. Just because someone disagrees with material voiced over the airwaves doesn't make it wrong. What is considered obscene to one person is not considered as such by someone else. I think you should take a closer look and fine yourselves for being obsolete dinosaurs and not modernizing with the times.
